How 17,000 Gymnasts Appeared On Germany's New Athletic Field

Photo by American Press Association.

PLEASE imagine 17,000 trained gymnasts, all clothed alike, in action at one time on an immense field. To the strains of music they go through their calisthenic movements with perfect rhythm and practically as one man. Such an inspiring sight was witnessed recently at Leipzig, Germany, when more than 100,000 athletes took part in games and contests there. The picture shows a section of the 17,000 as they appeared on the field. A gigantic stadium was built to seat the spectators, which was four times as large as that at the Olympic games at Stockholm. This stadium is permanent. The Olympic games in 1916 will be held there.

NO POUNDMASTER AND NO POUND JUST NOW

Chief of Police Puts It Up to Council and Acting Mayor Hands It Back to Officer.

POLICEMAN OF SALEM HAS MANY DUTIES TO PERFORM

When Not Patrolling His Beat He Must Serve Improvement Notices on Citizens of City.

"Why don't the council appoint a pound master, and if they did, where is the pound?" said Chief of Police Shedeck this morning, when asked whether or not the members of the police force were going to enforce the dog-muzzling ordinance, which has recently went into effect.

"I'd like to know what the council expects," continued the chief. "Here we have a pile of street improvement notices a mile high to serve, and every time one of my men is not busy, he has to hike out and help serve the papers. Even if the council did appoint a pound master, what will be done with the unmuzzled dogs he picks up? We have no pound, nor no place to put a dog if one is caught. We don't intend to go catching dogs under the present conditions."

Thinks Police Responsible. According to Acting Mayor Siegmund, the police should be made responsible for the enforcement of the dog-muzzling law. He says that the former pound master was under the direction of the chief of police, and that, inasmuch as the chief of police must enforce the dog ordinance as well.

It is possible that the ordinance will come up before the council tonight, and that a motion will be made to appoint a special dog catcher to act until the dog-muzzling ordinance expires, which is on September 1.

SPEAKER WHO GIBE JUDGE TO BE TRIED

Humphries, of Seattle, Orders Prosecuting Attorney to Proceed Against Three Who Spoke.

[UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.] Seattle, Wash., Aug. 25.—Judge John E. Humphries, of the superior court, this morning instructed Prosecuting Attorney John F. Morphy to issue criminal complaints for contempt of court against Dr. Hermon F. Titus, Mrs. Kate Saddle and Millard Price, who spoke at a meeting in City Hall Park Sunday afternoon, at which time they criticized the judge's recent injunction against speaking in a certain prescribed district.

"Holding up the court to ridicule," said the judge, "is a statutory offense."

In addition to the criminal complaints to be tried by jury, the judge also appointed three lawyers as special prosecutors for the purpose of proceeding against the speakers on ordinary contempt charges, to be tried by Judge Humphries without a jury.

MAN SHOT AND WOMAN IN CASE SAY ACCIDENT

[UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.] Seattle, Wash., Aug. 25.—The police are trying to clear up the mysterious shooting of John B. Nevin, an insurance man of Newark, N. J., early Sunday morning, which both Nevin and a woman companion in his room at the Hyatt hotel claim was an accident. The woman, who withheld her identity for 24 hours, finally told detectives that her name was Bertha Howarth, aged 30, a local dress maker. The bullet from a 32 calibre revolver pierced Nevin's left lung, broke a rib and lodged at the base of the neck, but he is not in serious danger. The "accident" occurred about 3:30 in the morning. The woman showed a bruise over the eye, which she says was made by her shoe when she dressed hurriedly.

WILSON WILL TURN DOWN BANKERS' PLAN

[UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.] Washington, Aug. 25.—President Wilson made it clear to all his callers today that all the bankers' proposed amendments to the currency bill would be rejected. He stated unhesitatingly that the press reports indicate that the bankers' resolution, passed in Chicago, showed a desire to eradicate every essential feature of the bill.

The president considers that the bankers' conference was simply a professional, self-interested move and believes a few big bankers dominated the meeting. He refused to believe that the resolution passed represented the

New and the Old in Aquatic Sports During Summer Term

Photos by American Press Association.

HERE you see illustrated the new and the old in aquatic sports. Canoe tilting is one of the recent games which has gained favor as a summer pastime. It's full of excitement for those who participate and for those who watch. There's a thrill in almost every move. The contestants try to dump each other into the water. Now, every one knows that a canoe is the easiest thing in the world to tip over, but in this game a noticeable feature is the fact that it's hard to overturn the canoe unless the tilting is done in the right way. The contestants wear bathing suits, and so a ducking does them no harm. If they are overturned they scramble back, and the contest is on again. Tub racing is one of the oldest but funniest of water games. One of the side splitting spills is here illustrated.

real sentiments, even of the bankers themselves. He said he had heard indirectly that the rank and file of both bankers and business men were in favor of the currency bills.

WHY LETTERS WERE REFUSED.

[UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.] Washington, Aug. 25.—Testifying before the house "insidious lobby" probe here today, Martin Mulhail, of Baltimore, former self-styled lobbyist for the National Association of Manufacturers, declared that the editor of Hearst's Magazine refused to buy his letters on the activities of lobbyists on the ground the publication of the correspondence would aid the candidacy of Woodrow Wilson for president.

SAYS DISSOLUTION OF TWO ROADS IS FARCE

[UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.] Washington, Aug. 25.—Speaking before the house here today, Representative Kindel, of Colorado, declared that if an investigation of the affairs of the Union Pacific is continued, that it could be proved that the dissolution of the Southern Pacific-Union Pacific merger was a farce and manipulated by a money ring. He flatly charged that the dissolution hearing was in private in strict violation of the president's orders and that the attorney-general had discussed the matter with Judge Lovett, of the Union Pacific, in St. Paul.

Nathan Straus, Philanthropist, Ill at His Summer Retreat

NATHAN STRAUS, the noted millionaire merchant and philanthropist, was taken ill recently and rushed by special train to his summer home in the Thousand Islands. Mr. Straus is a brother of Isidor Straus, one of the Titanic victims, and of Oscar S. Straus, who ran for governor of New York on the Progressive ticket. Nathan Straus is widely known for his pure milk charity. Through his efforts sterilized milk is sold to the poor of New York and surrounding territory at cost. He is also keenly interested in the white plague fight.
